Lakeland Police Attempt to Identify Grand Theft Suspects

On or about June 30, 2009, suspects removed a trailer from the business of The Fourth Wall, 4030 Kidron Road, in Lakeland. One vehicle removed the trailer, while another vehicle operated as a lookout.

The trailer is described as a 12 foot enclosed box trailer with dual axle. The trailer is a Wells Cargo utility trailer with Florida Tag E22-ONZ. The trailer is black and has a four foot "The Fourth Wall" logo in white writing on both sides. The front right tire is blown out. The trailer contained a motorcycle lift, 10 packing blankets, 7 artwork stands, and 1 hollow core door.

Suspect Vehicle that removed the trailer is a black or dark colored Ford pickup with tan or light trim around bottom and wheel wells. Pickup also has a black or dark topper.

Vehicle 2 is small and white or light colored.

If you have any information that could lead to the identity of these thieves, please contact the Lakeland Police Department, 863.834.6900, or Crime Stoppers, 800.226.TIPS (8477). This information is also available on www.lpdonlinenews.com.
